

Telluride Film Festival

Don't Have a Pass? Don't Despair! Here are some ways to still have a great time:

One SHOW At A Time

- Individual tickets are $35 each. Once passholders are seated, tickets for the remaining seats are sold on a first-come, first-served basis just before SHOWtime.
 - The venues with the greatest likelihood of available seats are the Werner Herzog Theatre (650 seats), the Palm (650 seats), the Galaxy (500 seats) and Chuck Jones' Cinema in Mountain Village (500 seats). Another opportunity for available seats is usually in the morning or late at night.
 - Watch for repeat screenings of the Festival's most popular films called TBAs (To Be Announced). Announcements will appear each morning at the Hospitality Center and at all theatre locations. There are usually tickets available for many repeat showings.
 - Tributes usually have tickets available at show time for this Festival highlight.
 - The Late Show Ticket ($100) provides entry to the final shows Friday, Saturday, Sunday and Monday at both Chuck Jones' Cinema and the Palm. Tickets may be purchased at the Nugget Theatre or at either venue's box office. Late Show Ticket holders will be admitted to their shows with general passholders.

Free SHOWs

Once passholders have been seated, remaining seats are free (unless otherwise noted).

- Backlot – A series of films at Telluride's Wilkinson public library (see program for schedule).
- Filmmakers of Tomorrow: Calling Cards, Student Prints and Great Expectations are three exciting programs demonstrating adventurous up-and-coming talent.
- 'Conversations' held in the County Courthouse between intriguing Festival guests.
- Noon Seminars in Elks Park (across from the Courthouse) are open to all on Saturday and Sunday featuring panels of guests in attendance addressing different topics – questions from the audience are welcome.
- Abel Gance Outdoor Cinema, located in Elks Park features a different film each evening during the Festival starting at 8:30pm. All shows are free to all who can find a spot on the lawn and brave the mountain weather.
